

ROB Mt. Diablo Mar. 26, 2011

We are heading to 3,849 ft Mt. Diablo summit to enjoy the famous view -- "the second greatest surface area seen from any peak in the world", from Golden Gate to Mt. Hamilton and from Mt. Loma Prieta to Mt. Lassen! We will enjoy rock formations, small caves, wildlife and spring flowers and the company of Troop 57 hikers.

This is a 10 mile hike to qualify for a hiking merit badge.

Date: 3/26/11 Saturday

Place Mt. Diablo State Park

Departure We depart from the Scout House at 8 am.

Who: Troop 57 scouts and incoming scouts

Adult Leaders: Przemek Gardias (przemek@gardias.com), John van Gelder (jmvg@sbcglobal.net)

Scout Leaders: Alex Lu (aeksanthr@gmail.com)

Hike We will head to the Mt Diablo State Park, South Gate (Rock City) from where we would take Summit Trail to the very top of the Monte del Diablo (thicket of the devil). We will explore the Rock City area, its caves and rock formations on the way to the top. Brace yourself for the 360 degrees view and superb company of your friends.

Food: Bring your own sack lunches and two bottles of water.

Cost: Free

Required: Bring warm, layered clothing and rain jacket.

Reply Deadline: March 19th, 2011

